SUBJECT: News Release – Texas A&M University Police Welcomes New Police Officers

The Texas A&M University Police Department (TAMU-PD) would like to welcome seven new police officers to the department, Jeremy Bailey, Christopher Bouton, Richard Gray, Curtis Green, Christopher Kozekwa, Troy Metcalfe, and Catherine Trusty.

The new officers were sworn in today during a ceremony at the TAMU-PD honoring their recent completion of the Central Texas Police Academy's 162nd Basic Peace Officer Course. Following the ceremony, the officers will attend their academy graduation ceremony at the Annenberg Presidential Conference Center.

On Monday, June 11th, the new officers will report for duty to begin their field training. The officers will spend the next 20 weeks paired with Field Training Officers to learn the duties of being a police officer at Texas A&M University.
